

CALL FOR PAPERS

APCC2008

October 14-16, 2008 | Akihabara, Tokyo, Japan

The 14th Asia-Pacific Conference on Communications

Theme: Collaboration and Innovation toward New Generation ICT Society

The 14th Asia-Pacific Conference on Communications (APCC2008) will be held in Tokyo, Japan. Since 1993, APCC has been the forum for researchers and engineers in the Asia-Pacific region to present and discuss topics related to advanced information and communication technologies and services, while at the same time, opening the door to the world. Prospective authors are invited to submit original technical papers for presentation at the conference and publication in the conference proceedings. Papers will be listed in IEEE Xplore, and an opportunity will be provided for submission to a special issue of IEICE Transactions on Communications.

SUGGESTED TOPICS

Topics of interest include, but are not limited to:

- 4G Mobile Network Architecture
- Ad Hoc and Sensor Networks
- Antennas and Propagations
- Broadband Wireless Access
- Broadcasting Technologies
- Coding and Modulations
- Control Plane Technologies
- Convergence Networks
- DSP for Communications
- Emerging Wireless Technologies
- Experimental System and Field Trial
- Flow-based Traffic Management
- Higher Speed Ethernet
- High-speed Switching and Routing
- Information and Communication Theory
- Information Security
- Media Streaming
- Mobile Wireless Systems
- Multimedia Communications
- Network and Service Management
- Network Coding
- Network Security
- Networked Applications and Multicasting
- New Generation Networks
- Next Generation Mobile Networks
- Optical Communications
- Overlay Network and P2P Networking
- Parallel Processing on Multi-Core Systems
- Photonic Networks
- QoS and Resource Management
- RF Technologies
- Satellite and Space Communications
- Speech and Video Signal Processing
- VPNs and Traffic Engineering
- Wireless LANs

IMPORTANT DATES

Paper Submission due:
May 10, 2008 extended

Notification of Acceptance
June 30, 2008

Early Registration due:
August 18, 2008
